Smooth Jazz from Atlanta's Own - Toni Redd

The captivating and sultry vocal styling of Toni Redd combines traditional jazz, contemporary smooth jazz, classic soul, and rhythm and blues to create a unique and powerful blend of southern soul that has to be heard. Ms. Redd is an accomplished performer who has graced the stage with famous artists such as The Rippingtons, Stanley Jordan, Oleta Adams, Kim Waters and The Temptations to name a few.

After touring in Asia and Canada, she released her first solo album entitled "Straight From the Heart" in 2004. You may know her voice from national commercial work she has performed for major retailers JCPenney and MCI. She is also an accomplished stage performer who has just completed a national tour with the play "A Good Man Is Still Hard to Find."
